These were transformed into a modern, sustainable home.

A panel of industry experts claimed the house was "a stunning example of innovation.

"Great care was taken throughout to minimise embodied carbon and toxicity in the build, and the house and landscape were designed to the highest levels of biodiversity."

The owners of the Darralls, Anthony and Jenni Bulley, felt the award was well deserved.

They added: "We are delighted with the build quality in creating our home and are thrilled that Arte131 have been recognised with this Award, thoroughly deserved, and well earned."
